

Popular Genres & Total Amount Spent Per Country In The Year of 2013

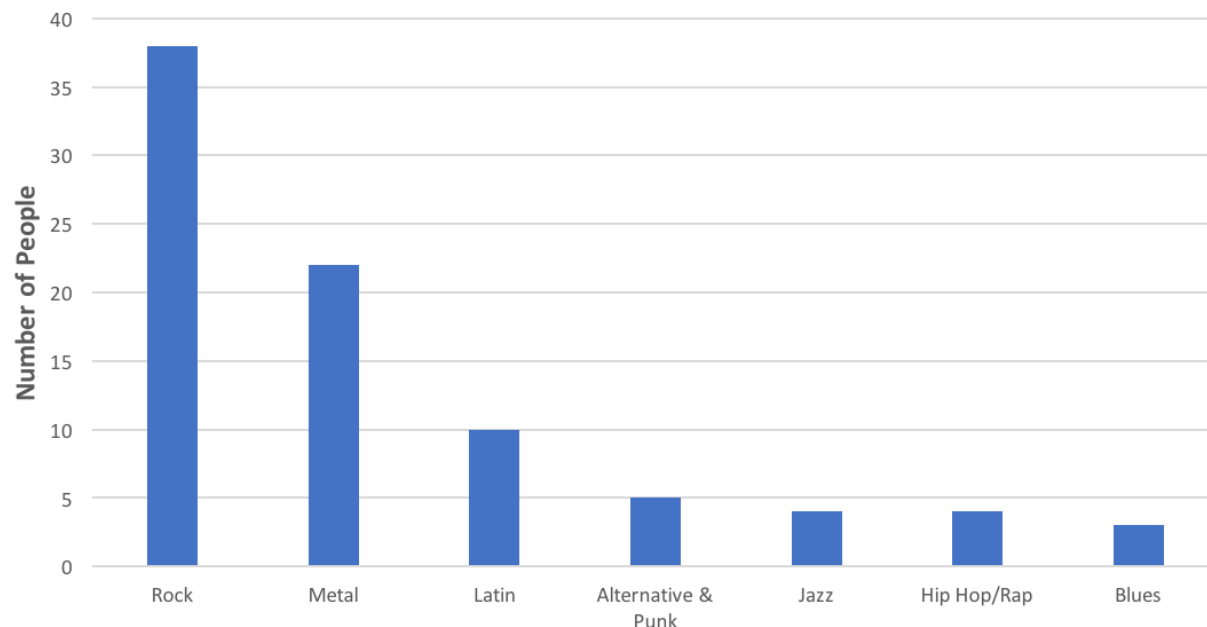

Popular Genre in Canada

Total Amount Spent Per Country

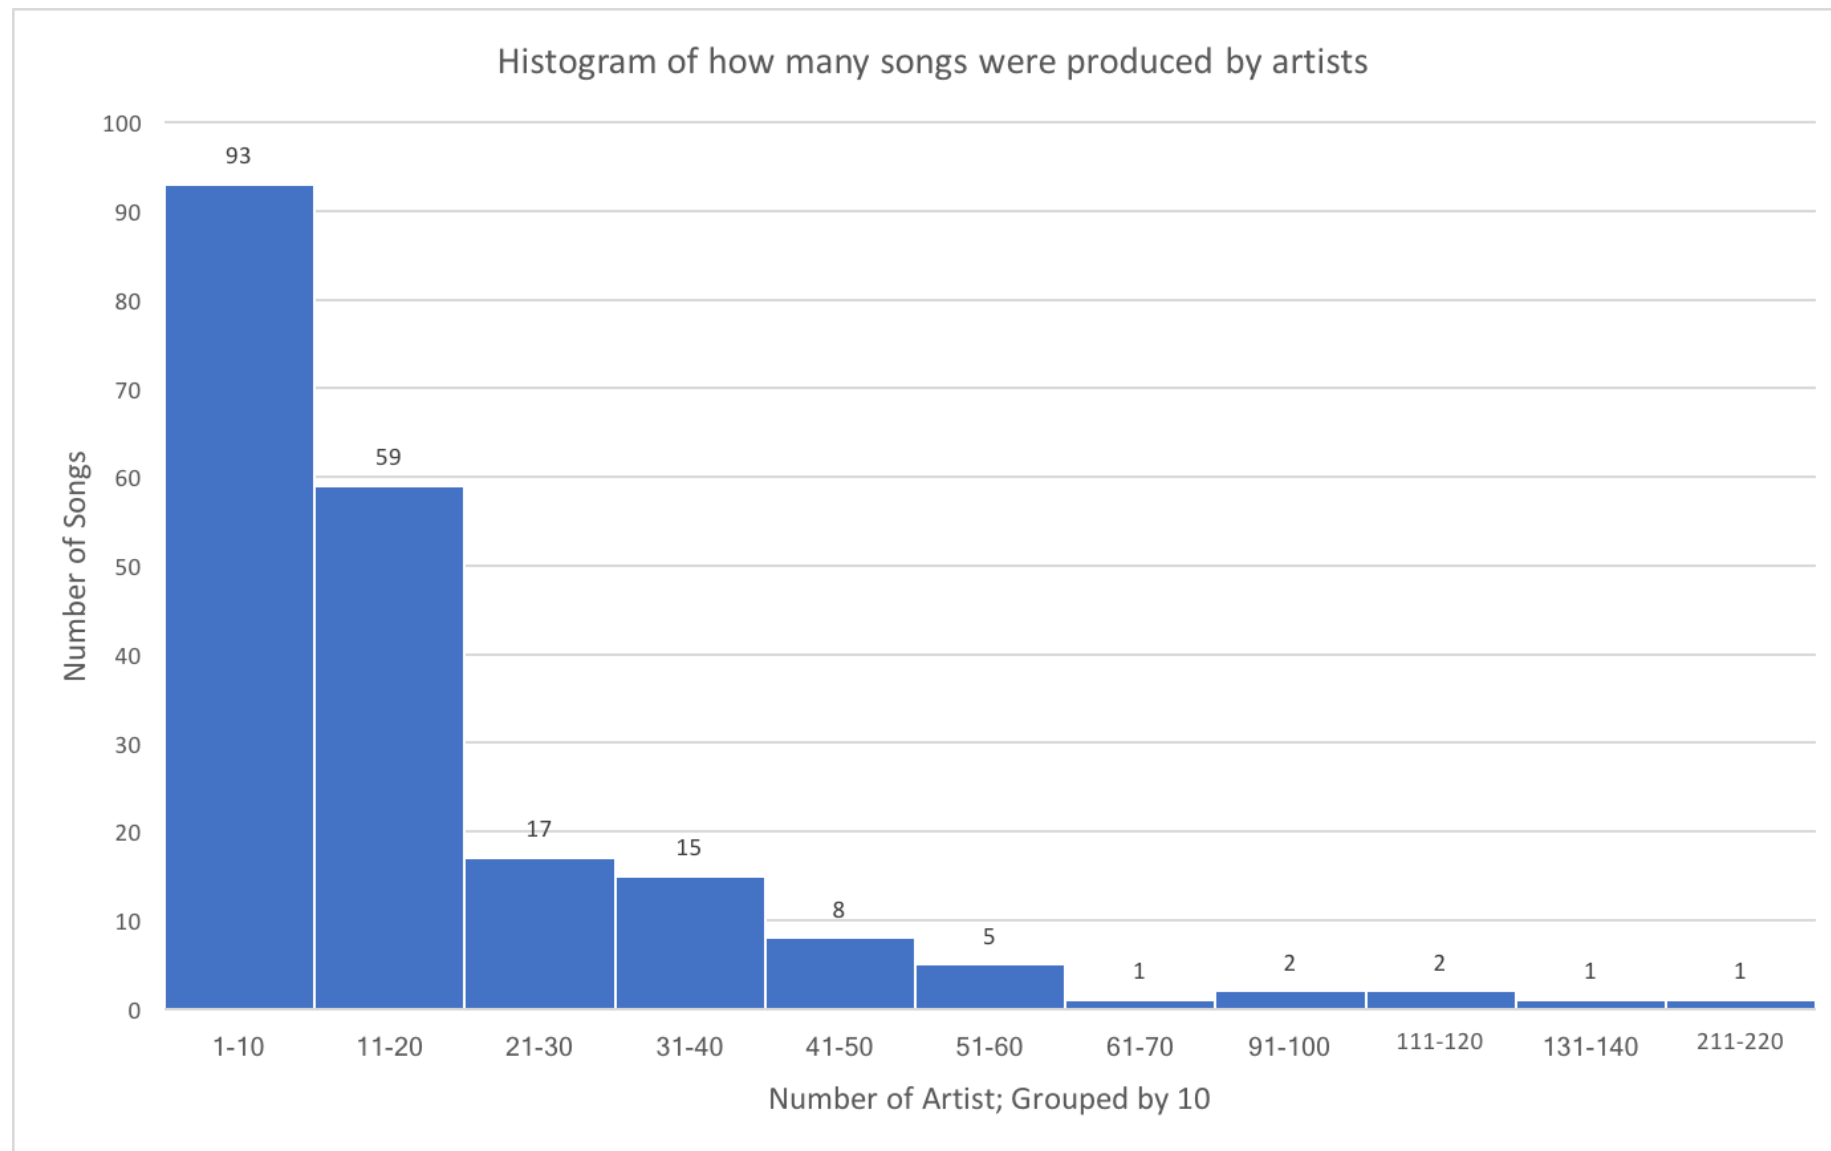

Popular Genre in USA

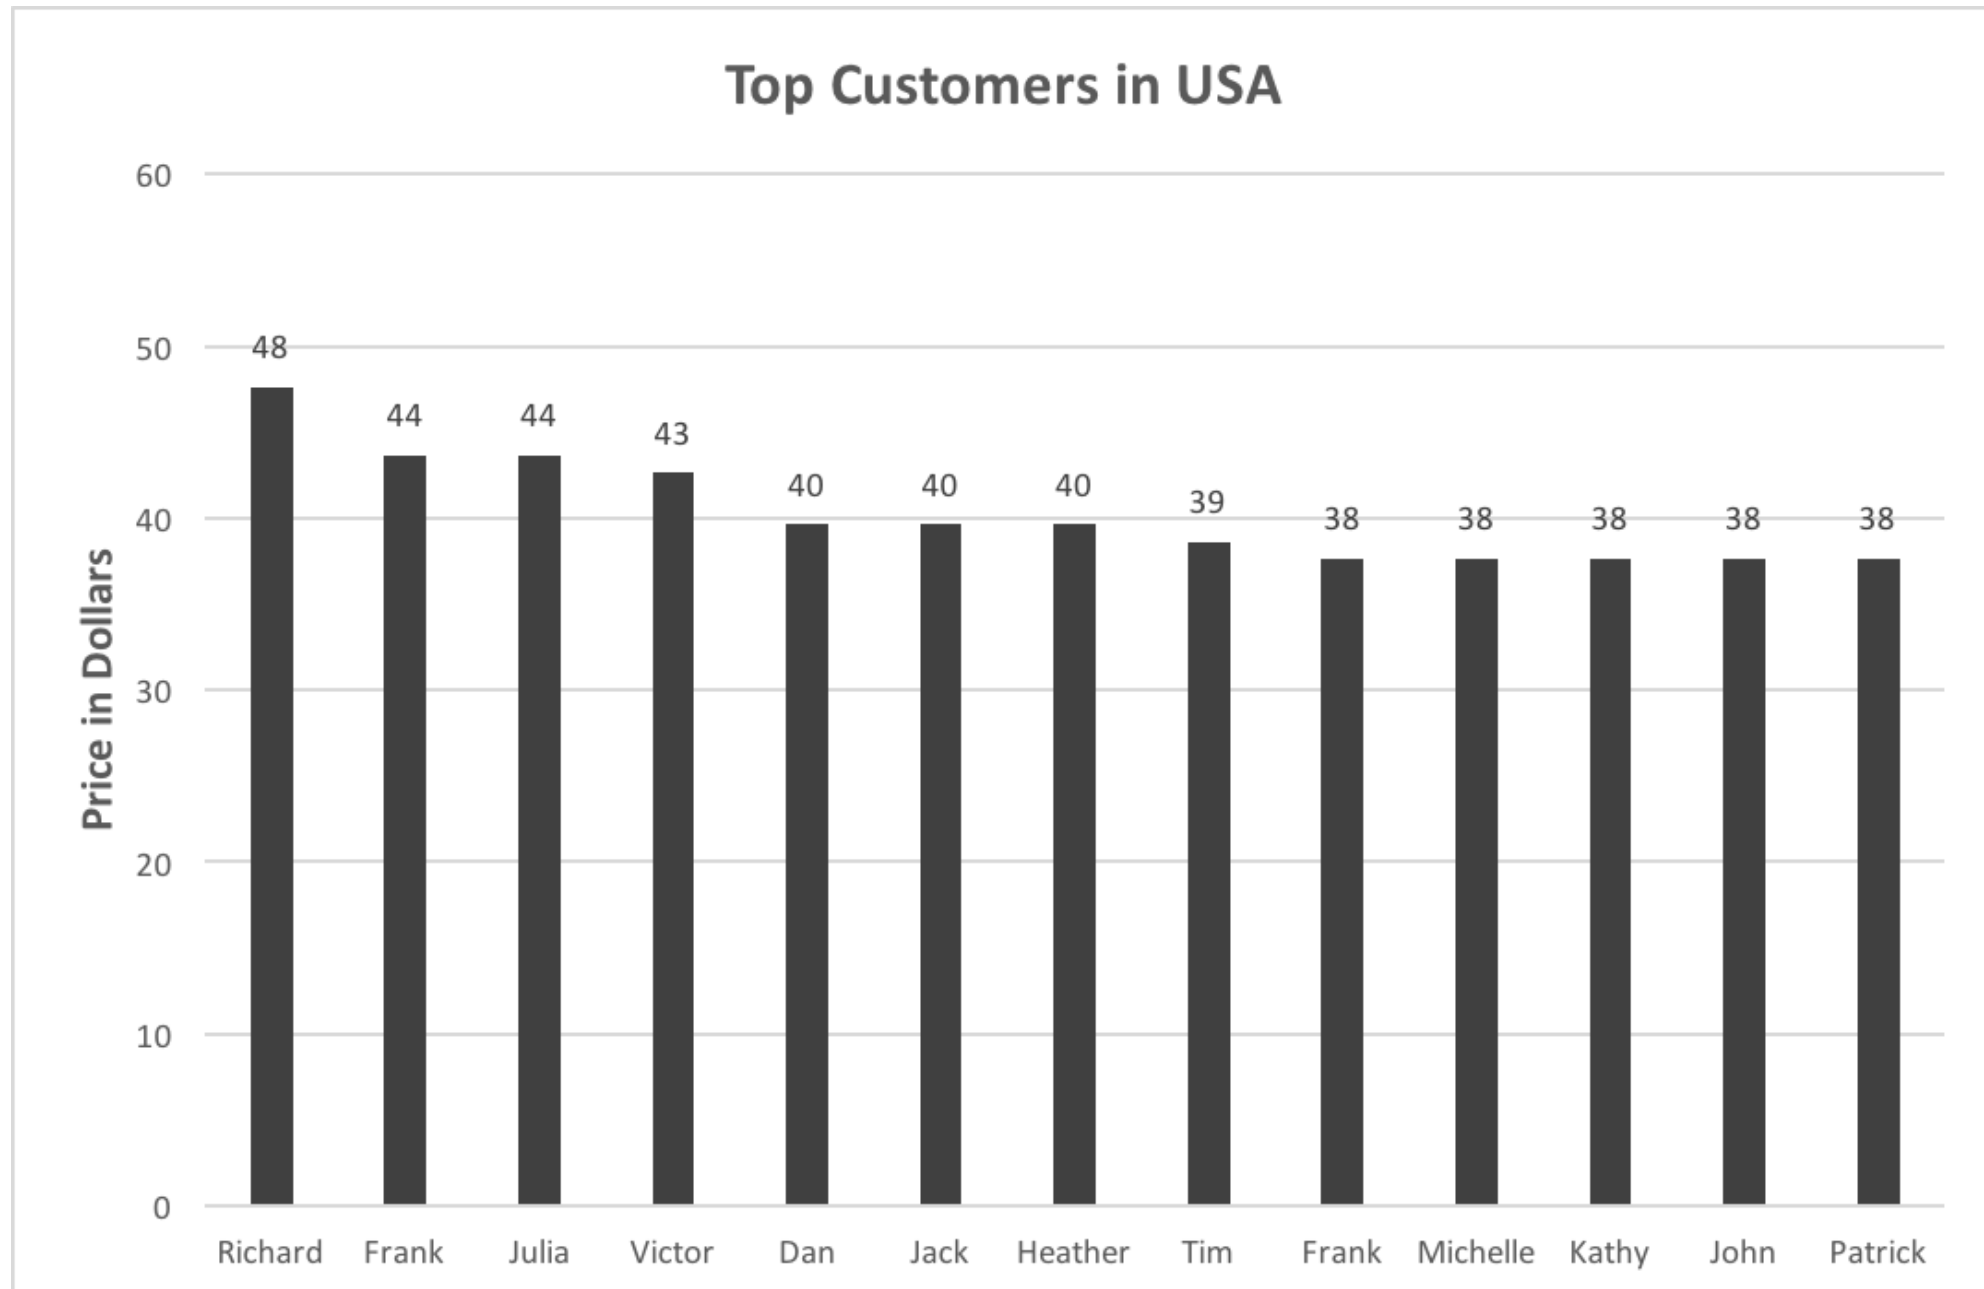

Here, we can see that USA spent the most money on music than any other country. This being stated, we can see what genres were the most popular from the year of 2013. Seeing the popularity of Rock, we can safely say that Rock was the leading genre for sales.

Histogram of how many songs were produced by artists by artists

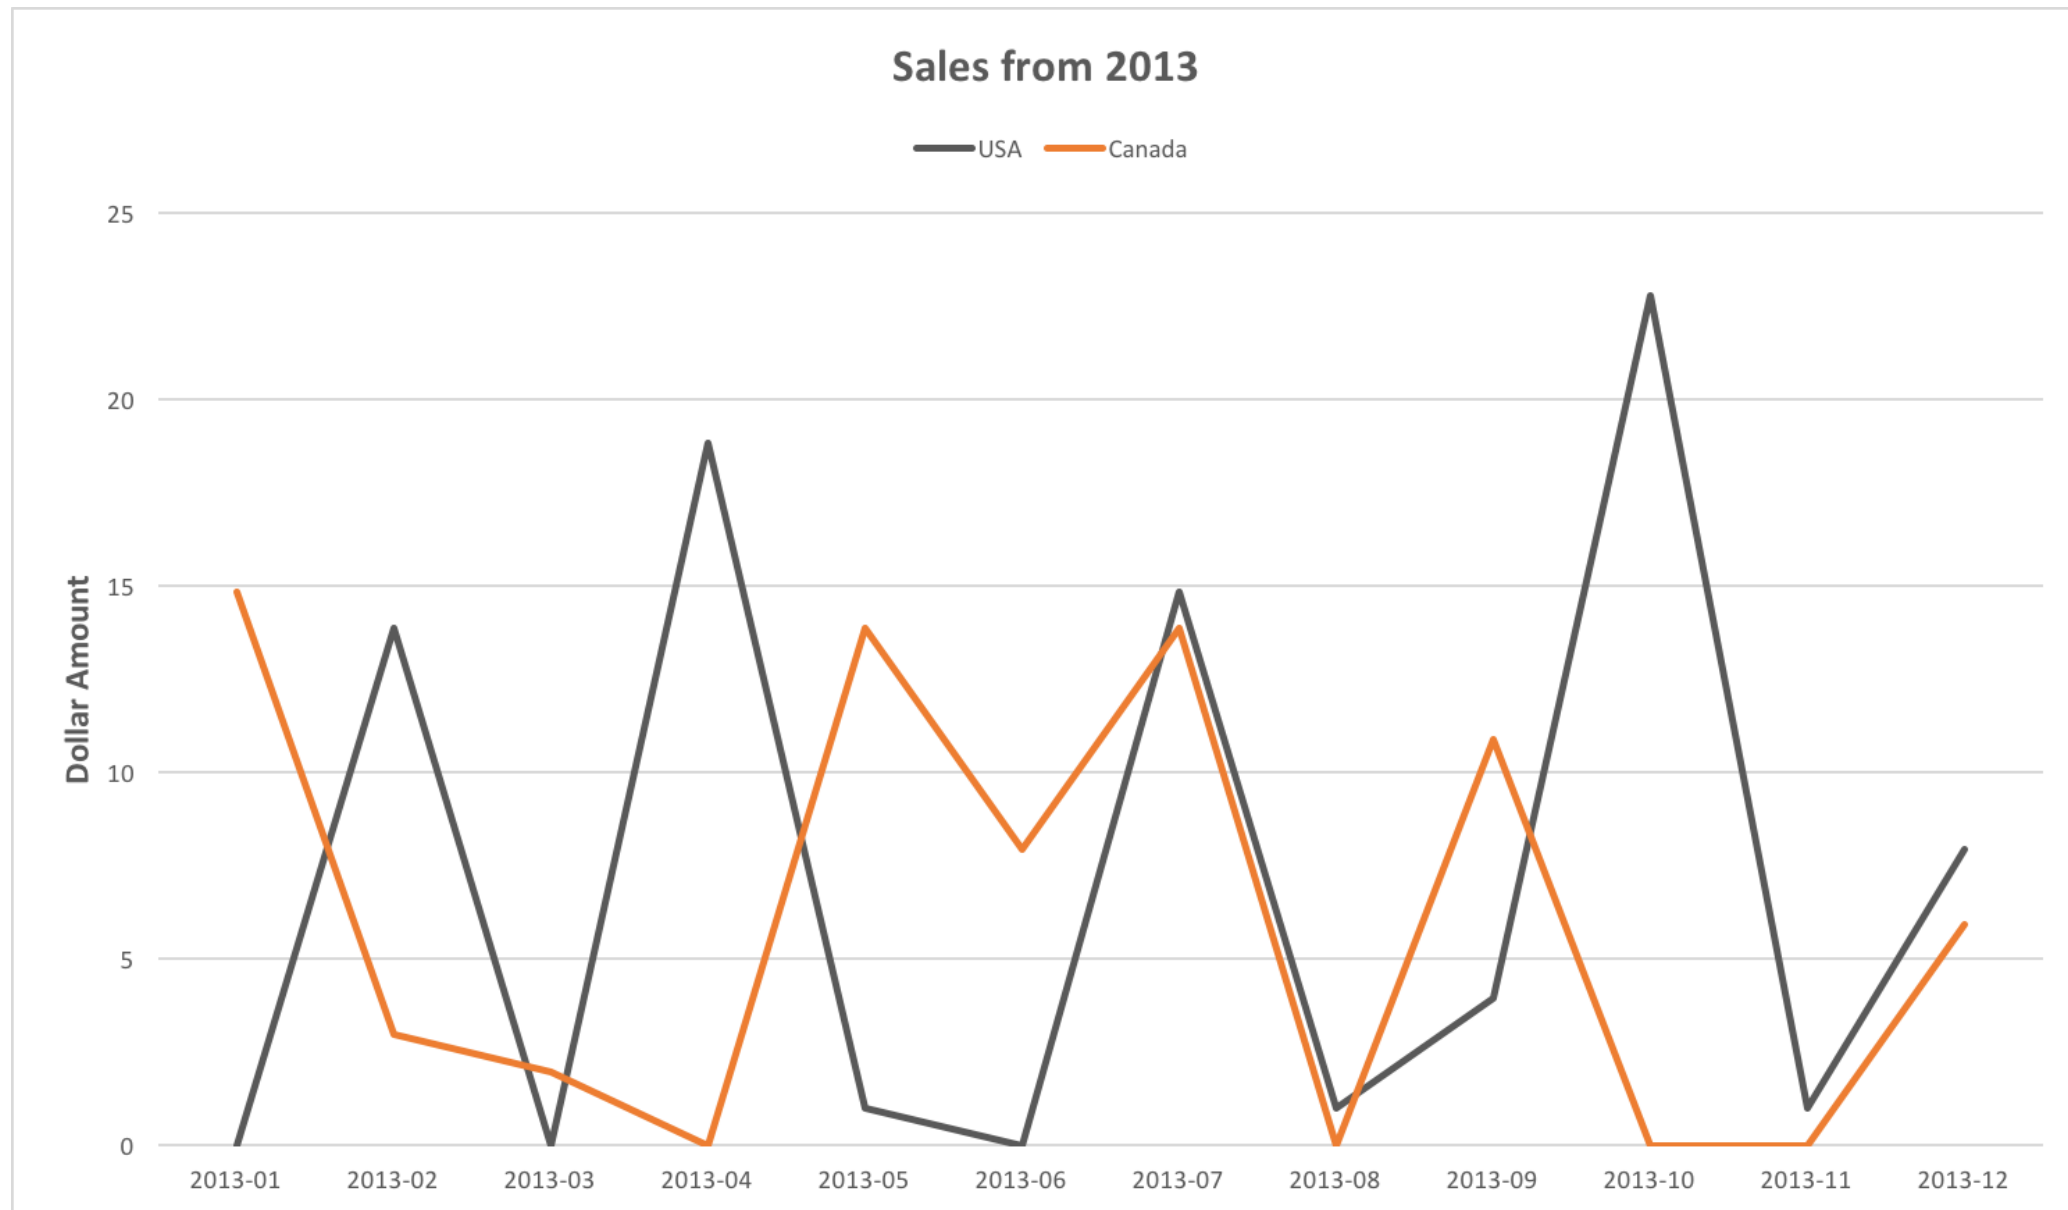

This graph shows us the number of songs that were produced by artists. We can see that 10 out of 200+ artists produced a total of 93 songs. Trailing, we see that 59 songs were produced by 20 artists. Looking at the bigger picture, we can say that 20 in 200+ artists, make the majority of the profit, which ultimately are the leading factor of sales.

Top customers in the USA

This chart shows us the top customers in the USA.
We can see that Richard is our number one customer leading the way with $48.00 in music sales.

Music sales from Canada and USA

Here, we have a graph that shows us the sales trends from USA and Canada in the year of 2013. We can see that in the month of July (2013-07) both countries did well in sales. Both hitting nearly $15.00 in music sales. Just after a good month, we see that both countries struggled to keep the trend alive while Canada had no sales, USA was up by just a dollar or two in the month of August (2013-08). Overall, we notice that even though both countries fluctuate in sales, both countries have healthy ranges in music sales.